

Last Man in Tower: The Extraordinary Story of the Last Survivor to Leave the World Trade Center on 9/11

A Riveting True Account of Survival, Heroism, and the Unbreakable Spirit of Humanity

On the fateful morning of September 11, 2001, William J. Langewiesche III found himself trapped on the 81st floor of the World Trade Center's North Tower. As chaos erupted around him and the building began to crumble, Langewiesche embarked on an extraordinary journey to survive. In his gripping memoir, "Last Man in Tower," he recounts his harrowing experience as the last known person to escape the doomed skyscraper.

With remarkable clarity and detail, Langewiesche vividly describes the moments leading up to the attacks and the surreal atmosphere that engulfed the tower in their aftermath. Through his gripping first-hand account, we witness the horrors of that fateful day and the indomitable spirit that prevailed amid unyielding despair.
