The book is divided into four parts:

- Lost and Found: This section contains stories about lost items that have been found, such as a lost wedding ring, a lost child, and a lost dog.
- Found and Lost: This section contains stories about found items that have been lost again, such as a found wallet that is lost again, a found child who is lost again, and a found dog that is lost again.

- Lost and Found Again: This section contains stories about lost items that have been found again, such as a lost wedding ring that is found again, a lost child who is found again, and a lost dog that is found again.
- Found and Lost Forever: This section contains stories about found items that have been lost forever, such as a found wallet that is lost forever, a found child who is lost forever, and a found dog that is lost forever.

Each story in Lost & Found is unique, but they all share a common theme: hope. The stories in this book show us that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope. Lost things can be found, lost people can be reunited with their loved ones, and even the most lost of causes can be found again.
